

ORDINANCE NO. 116

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF HOKAH, HOUSTON COUNTY, MINNESOTA,
AMENDING ORDINANCE NOS. 87, 87, AND 95 PROVIDING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND RULES AND REGULATIONS OF CITY OF HOKAH
VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

The City Council of the City of Hokah, Houston County, Minnesota, hereby ordains:

SECTION I. That except as hereinafter amended, all provisions of the Ordinances hereby amended shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION II. MEMBERS OF THE FIRST RESPONDERS. The first responders, an organization established in the City of Hokah to respond to certain emergency calls, sometimes in connection with fire calls, and sometimes independent of fire calls, are hereby constituted and determined to be members of the City of Hokah volunteer Fire Department.

SECTION III. FIREFIGHTERS' ROSTER. The present regulations concerning the number of volunteer firefighters in the City of Hokah Volunteer Fire Department provide that there shall be, in addition to the Fire Chief and two Assistant Fire chiefs, thirty firefighters. The regulations, moreover, provide that firefighters shall number no less than ten nor more than thirty. The present firefighters, exclusive of the Fire Chief, two Assistant Fire Chiefs and two Captains, number twenty-five. The present number of eligible first responders as incorporated hereby into the City of Hokah Volunteer Fire Department, exclusive of those who are already members of the Hokah Volunteer Fire Department, number five.

SECTION IV. This ordinance shall become effective upon its due passage, enactment and publication according to law.

Passed and enacted this 5thday of November, 1986.
